Rudolph Gave the Game To Her.

THE SCORE WAS 5 TO 8

Barre-Montpelier Team Left Game Unfinished at Burlington to Catch Train Home—Score Was 7 to 7.

Rutland, July 17.—Rutland won yesterday's game from Plattsburg on the local diamond by a score of 5 to 3. Hogarty, who started in to pitch for Rutland, was wild and was hit freely. He was relieved in the fourth inning by Hogarty, whose fine work saved the day for Rutland.

The game was listless and at times the fielding was ragged.

D. F. DAVIS SUCCESSFUL.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence, D. F. Davis, the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty-cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

So great is the demand for this specific, that D. F. Davis has been able to secure only a limited supply, and everyone who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon him at once, or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half-price offer, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

SCORE STOOD 7 to 7.

When Barre-Montpelier Team Was Obligated to Leave for Home.

Burlington, July 17.—The extra game between the Barre-Montpelier nine and the home team yesterday came to an end in the first half of the ninth inning, with the score a tie at 7 to 7. Two of the Hyphens were out, but as it was five o'clock, the time set for their departure from the grounds, Tom (Tina) and his Champs packed their bats, donned their slippers and skidded for the tally-ho and home. Today they play Ottawa at the Inter-city and refreshing sleep was sought in preparation for Daley, their ex-chief.

The game abounded in free hitting and loose playing, while the Hyphens threw in a generous lot of kicking on decisions. There were the usual number of players hurt, as there is in every exhibition game, and so many shifts in the Inter-city lineup that one could scarcely tell what would happen next.

Features were confined exclusively to the long distance hitting of the locals, Burde in four times up hit safe three times for a single, a double and a homer.

Higgins followed with a single and a home run in three chances, and Pattee with his home run in the first inning was third in the honor list. All these four-stroke were over the fence drives and all were made by Warner, who was on the rubber seven in innings.

Collins served them up for Burlington and pitched a good game, but his support crumbled away in the seventh inning, when the Champs made it worse by bunching four hits with a passed ball and errors by Collins and Higgins, the latter a miff at the plate, for a total of four runs. In the sixth, three runs were bunched by the Inter-city with a man hit, a fielder's choice and outfield error, but such was the luck that Burlington got out of the hole with only one run across the pan.

In the first inning Daniels walked, Elliott sacrificed and when Francis muffed Higgins' throw, Daniels came all the way around. Elliott stole third, having made two bases on his bunt, and scored on Higgins' poor throw to Beach.

The fatal seventh gave the Hyphens a two-run lead, but the home runs of Burde and Higgins tied the score and there it rested until the Champions yelled train time and fled.

BOSTON LOSES ONCE AGAIN

Free Admission Fills The Bleachers

WITH YOUNG FANS

But Fails to Bring a Winning Streak—Boston Nationals Did Not Play—Other Games Played Yesterday.

Boston, July 17.—Twelve thousand enthusiastic, cheering, fighting, youthful baseball fans took advantage yesterday of the free admission offer to the American league baseball grounds to witness the struggle between the Boston Americans and the St. Louis nine. The boys were given entire possession of the entire field bleachers. Extra police had to be called in to keep them under control.

It was the last game with the Browns, with Ralph Glaze, the clever collegian, in the box for the home team. The only scoring was in the first and fifth innings, the Browns tallying one in each inning, making a final score of St. Louis 2, Boston 0.

The whole team seemed to feel that they must give the young Indians, who swarmed into the middle field seats, satisfaction, and got down to business right off the bat. Captain Collins sat on the home bench and directed the team as of old. He looked much better after his week's absence.
